Citation of the Chancellor

On the Occasion of the Fiftieth Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood

His Excellency Bishop Gorman arrived in Dallas fifteen years ago. In retrospect arrival is entirely too weak a word.

Since that date there are thirty-eight new elementary schools providing facilities for 16,000 students, while existing facilities have been very considerably enlarged.

There are seven new high schools providing facilities for more than 5,000 students. There is the University of Dallas of which he is Chancellor, which in September will have an enrollment of considerably more than 1,000 students on a campus of more than 1,000 acres with twenty-four completely air-conditioned buildings, and four religious Orders.

In September the Braniff Graduate School opened, and now under construction are a graduate school building, tower, and gymnasium.

In September of 1965 Holy Trinity Seminary opened in temporary quarters, and by the end of the year a permanent seminary building will have been completed on the campus providing chapel, refectory, residence, and recreational facilities for 100 seminarians, with provision for expansion to 200.

New Orders have come into the Diocese: the Cistercian Fathers at the University of Dallas, the Dominican Fathers at the University of Dallas and Bishop Lynch High School, the Dominican Sisters at Bishop Lynch High School, the Brothers of Mary at Monsignor Nolan High School in Fort Worth, the Brothers of the Sacred Heart at Bishop Dunne High School, and the Brothers of the Holy Cross in Wichita Falls. In elementary schools there are the Bernardine Sisters, the Sisters of the Holy Family of Nazareth, and the Sisters of the Incarnate Word and Blessed Sacrament. The Sisters of St. Mary of Namur have established a House of Studies at the University of Dallas, and the School Sisters of Notre Dame a House of Studies and a Provincialate.

The cold figures constitute more of a eulogy than any words I could contrive. It is therefore my great pleasure and privilege to present to His Excellency, the Most Reverend Thomas K. Gorman, Bishop of Dallas-Fort Worth, on behalf of the University of Dallas, administration, faculty, and students, this award in recognition of these almost unbelievable accomplishments:

His Excellency
Most Reverend Thomas K. Gorman
D.D., D.Sc.Hist.

It is the privilege of the University of Dallas to present to His Excellency Bishop Thomas K. Gorman, founder and Chancellor of the University of Dallas, founder of Holy Trinity Seminary, and founder of the Texas Catholic, this award in recognition of and in admiration for his truly magnificent contribution to education at all levels and in every area throughout his fifty years as a priest of God.
